St. James' News for the Week of March 4, 2018

Sabbatical team invites input

Becky's sabbatical team is helping to prepare a grant application and is asking for your input. An 8 question survey has been sent via e-blast, and is available in paper copy at the back of the church. The Grant asks us to include congregational feedback so your response is invaluable. The deadline for completing and returning the survey is Sunday, March 11. If you complete a hard copy survey, please leave it with Beth in the Parish Office.

Sabbatical team hosts TOWN MEETING

On Sunday, March 18, at noon in the Parish Hall, the sabbatical team will be hosting a Town Hall style meeting to provide more detailed information about Becky's sabbatical planning and to enable discussion of questions, concerns and ideas that you may have. Light lunch provided. Sign-up with Beth in the Parish Office requested by March 15 so that we may order appropriate amounts of food.

MUSIC AND SPIRIT March 11th & 18th

Glorious Music of Remembrance and Redemption performed by the MasterWorks Chorale under the direction of Kip Coerper, ChM. Haydn "Mass in F", Schubert "Mass In G", and John Rutter's "Requiem", will be accompanied by members of Symphoria on March 18 at 4 at St. Mary's Auburn, and with piano accompaniment on March 11 at 4 at St. Stephen Lutheran Church at 873 Dewlitt St. In Syracuse. All are welcome

Easter Flowers

Easter Flower Envelopes Available
In the pew pockets, there are Easter Flower envelopes available for anyone who wishes to make a donation. On the envelope please include the names of those you wish to remember, honor or appreciate. Donations and names are due to the Parish Office by March 23rd.

Quiet Prayer Space

A small prayer space for quiet, individual and small group prayer will be set up in the prayer room and chapel during Lent. It will have chairs and a variety of materials for assisting prayer, such as candles, prayer cards, and prayer shawls. Feel free to use these spaces any time when the building is open and the rooms are not in use.

MasterWorks Chorale's Chamber Singers will perform TODAY at 2:00 at the Marcellus Free Library.

There's no need to ssshhh when the MasterWorks Chorale Chamber Singers, under the direction of Kip Coerper let their voices loose in the Marcellus Library! The 16-voice a cappella ensemble will present a free one-hour concert. From reflective classics of the Renaissance era to contemporary inspirational works and jubilant spirituals, this timeless music is sure to brighten up even a dreary March afternoon.

Be a Part of the 10:45 Worship Service!

As many of the St. James' snow birds fly south during winter coupled with the increase in illness, St. James' has quite a few opportunities for worship participants for the 10:45 service. Ushers, acolytes, readers, chalice bearers and worship band members are all available. Whether you can help once a while, every Sunday or something in between, your participation truly makes a difference in the worship experience for others. Lent is a wonderful time to explore being an active part of worship. If you are interested or have any questions, please contact Laura Posecznick at laura@stjameskan.org.

GoFundMe for Youth El Salvador Trip

Five young women are interested in attending the July Seminar provided by Cristosal Global. The travel expenses are quite large for this type of trip. Please consider donating to enable them to attend. Visit: <https://www.gofundme.com/rsm8u-mission-trip-to-el-salvador>
