God reveals himself in glory.
- 3 Our God will come and will not keep silence; *
before him there is a consuming flame,
and round about him a raging storm.
- 4 He calls the heavens and the earth from above *
to witness the judgment of his people.

for God himself is judge.

The Sermon

The Rev. Joe T. Mitchell

The Nicene Creed

All stand, as able.

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

After each petition:

Intercessor Light of the world;
People Hear our prayer.

The Presider prays a concluding Collect, and the People respond, 'Amen.'

The Confession & Absolution

Presider Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence is kept. All may kneel or solemnly bow.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you, in thought, word, and deed; by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry, and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Presider offers the Absolution. The People are seated.

Presider The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord and are seated.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer C

Presider The Lord be with you.
People And also with you
Presider Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Presider At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.
People By your will they were created and have their being.

Presider From the primal elements you brought forth the human race and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you and betrayed your trust, and we turned against one another.
People Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Presider Again and again you called us to return. Through prophets and sages, you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

People By his blood he reconciled us. By his wounds we are healed.

Presider And therefore we praise you joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

All join in singing the Sanctus (printed on the pew card)

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.

The People continue standing as the Presider prays for God to bless and sanctify the People's gifts.

After recalling Christ's Last Supper, the Presider and People proclaim the Memorial Acclamation.

Presider Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

People We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

The Presider recalls God's work in creation and through our ancestors and prays that the People may be blessed and sanctified by God. The Presider and People then pray:

Presider Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

People Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the bread.

When the Presider concludes the prayer, the People loudly respond, "AMEN!"

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say.

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. All sing the Confractorium (printed on the pew card)

Choir Be known to us, Lord Jesus, in the breaking of the bread.

All Be known to us, Lord Jesus, in the breaking of the bread.

Choir The bread which we break, alleluia, is the communion of the body of Christ.

All Be known to us, Lord Jesus, in the breaking of the bread.

Choir One body are we, alleluia, for though many, we share one bread.

All Be known to us, Lord Jesus, in the breaking of the bread.

The Presider invites the People to share in the Communion.

All those who desire a deeper relationship with Christ are invited to come forward. The Presider will place the Bread in your hands. You may eat the Bread and drink from the common Cup, or you may leave the Bread in your hands and have the Minister dip the Bread in the Wine for you before handing it back.

Gluten-free wafers are available upon request. If you do not wish you receive for any reason, you are welcome to come forward and cross your arms for a blessing.

During Communion, Prayer Ministers are available at either end of the altar rail to pray with anyone who is in need.

Hymns During Communion Be still, for the presence of the Lord

Picardy*

After all have received Communion, the Presider returns to the Holy Table.

Presider Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ. And you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Presider offers a blessing, and the People respond, 'Amen.'
